A relative from [illegible] to the last census] market, but rates were unchanged at 4@5 per cent. Local securities were active and prices higher. Eastern bills sold at [illegible] to 90 days discount. Sterling was unchanged. There was little examination in exports.—The Chicago produce markets were quiet, but averaged stronger, with good buying of wheat and provisions late in the session. There was not much news on values from outside. Oil opened with Saturday's [illegible] prices, sold 10c under higher, then 1c above higher, 1c over higher, 10c higher, closing 1c over higher, 10c higher, 10c higher, 10c

INSTRUCTING THE JURY.

IF! IF! IF!

If the action of Clothing stores was to override thousands of Men's Suits at $5 apiece, we could do it. BUT what sorry-looking Suits they'd be! The fact is, 99 per cent of "you, good fellow," who neither is nor have collation, have practiced, and perhaps fitting a Suit or Spring Overcoat you can get for $15, $18, $20, $22, or $25, instead of considering the clothiers. That's why we're aiming high; such a large proportion of the thrifty population want good goods, garments which will gratify the eye and promote both physical and mental comfort.

Long experience tells us unmistakably that the ROGERS, PEET & Co. suits and Overcoats are pre-eminently successful in this direction, and the increasing demand for these leads us to "load up" this season heavier than ever before with this well-known make of SPRING OVERCOATS, BUSINESS AND DRESS SUITS, and JUVENILE APPAREL.

As for Hats and Furnishings—well, the new goods are here, and you can rest assured they're right, as are the prices, or we wouldn't own them.

Spring Overcoats. Trousers.

Give latitude to your ideas as if you were reading a poem in your anticipations about our Spring Overcoats.

We have given past commodity into luxury in hundreds of them. You can get from us a Spring Overcoat without a grand's extra cost in it, at a very, very reasonable price! or, you can go to the limit of nobleness with silk facings and linings, and get a garment to wear as satisfactorily as fine jewelry—and yet at a reasonable price!

If elegant styles and fair prices get their desert—we will.

Money saved on trousers is as good as money saved on anything, if the trousers are good ones. Our made-to-measure trousers at $5, $6.50, $8 are the sort of fabrics that sell at 'best tailors' for $6.50, $8, $10, $12, and $15, giving you a clear gain of from $1.50 to $4 on a pair.

New spring shades in neckwear are here, the very richest of patterns.

Spring derby hats as low as $2.

Our $3 shoes not only look well, but wear well.

Have been placed on sale. The above includes MANY ADVANCED STYLES IN IMPORTED NOVELTIES not to be found elsewhere.

LAST CALL

On the balance of our Fall and Winter Goods at PRICES CUT to ONE-THIRD former prices. Cloth Newmarkets $5, reduced from $15; $25 Newmarkets reduced to $8; $30 Plush Wraps, to close at once, $10; the cheapest Plush Sacque, considering the value, ever sold in America, $25; rich Imported Wraps, Suits, and Long Garments, former prices $75 to $150, now $35, $35, and $50.

Many of these goods are more suitable to wear in this climate for the next two or three months than the lighter spring weights, while the prices are merely nominal. But we must have the room.
